
Beginning on December 1, 2007, the immigration authorities of Bolivia will require US citizens to obtain a visa.

The validity of tourist visas for United States citizen will now be of ten (10) years, allowing multiple entries. The admittance is for a period of thirty (30) calendar days extendable by request to the Directorate General of Immigration for two (2) similar periods; themselves that can be continuous or discontinuous in the period of one (1) year.

Requirements to Request a Tourist Visa for US Citizens:

- Complete the Sworn Statement For Visa Application
- One recent 2" x 2" passport type photograph
- Original Passport with at least 6 months of validity
- Copy of the hotel reservation or invitation letter from Bolivian friends or relatives indicating the host address (if invitation letter is from friend or family, it must be personal, institutional invitations is only for Specific Purpose Visa)
- Round trip ticket or copy of travel itinerary
- Bank statement or equivalent that shows economic solvency (Please note that the validity of the document should be for at least the travel period). Parent's or Legal Guardian's Economic Solvency documents are accepted for underage applicants.
- Visa fee: US$ 160.00
- The visa can be obtained at any Consulate of Bolivia

WHERE TO APPLY?

You can apply with the Bolivian Consulate in Washington, DC only if you reside in one of the following States: District of Columbia, Maryland, Virginia, West Virginia, Ohio, Indiana, Illinois, Wisconsin, Iowa, Missouri, Minnesota and North Carolina.

If you do not reside in one of those states, you have to apply with another Bolivian Consulate, depending on where you live in the United States. For that information you can check your nearest Consulate: New York, Miami, Houston and Los Angeles.

Incomplete applications will be returned without being processed. There is no expedited option, please plan accordingly

Important

Please scan all the required documents (#2 to #6) before you begin your application. Processing time is of 5 business days, starting when we receive application, payment and actual passport.

TIPS:

- Make sure the information in the Sworn Statement is the same as in the passport.
- Make sure all the requirements listed above show the name of the applicant.
